

Foteini Vlachou

The disappointed writer

— SELECTED ESSAYS —

COLECÇÃO

sanguínea

Contents

Editors' Note	VII
Introduction: PERIPHRAISIS: PROVINCES, MARGINS, PERIPHERIES, CENTRES — FOTEINI VLACHOU AND THE DECENTRING OF ART HISTORY, by Terry Smith	XIII
PORTUGAL IN PERPETUAL DELAY?	31
The absence of Vasari: The reception of the Vite in Portugal, c. 1568–1823	33
BIGOTRY OR A VISION FOR THE FUTURE? CHOOSING BETWEEN ITALY AND FRANCE	59
The Basilica da Estrela: Iconography and proselytism	61
The Basilica da Estrela: Aesthetic criticism as cultural resistance	81
THE NEW HISTORY PAINTING IN PORTUGAL	95
The Empire in transition and History Painting in Portugal	97
The Oath of Viriato . The Genesis of a Paradigm	127
The epopoeia of Portuguese domination in the Indian Ocean: The iconographic program and the lost paintings of the Sala das Descobertas in the Palácio de Mafra	165
TIPTOEING AROUND THE ENEMY	173
Politics, Style and Intervention in Sequeira's Allegory of Junot Protecting the City of Lisbon (1808)	175
Ambiguity and Propaganda: The Napoleonic Allegories of the Palácio de Queluz, 1808	189
NEW DEFINITIONS: DECORATIVE PAINTING, THE CONCEPT OF NATURALISM, ART HISTORY AS NATIONAL HISTORY OF ART	211
Columbano and redefining large-scale decorative painting	213
'Natural, Naturalismo, Nacional': Painting Portuguese Nature during the second half of the Nineteenth-century	237
Defining the object of art history: Teaching at the Lisbon Academy of Fine Arts c. 1874–1911	253
MAKING STARS, AT HOME AND ABROAD	265
Georges de la Tour and the Peintres de la réalité Exhibition. Ideology and Reception	267

Augusto Ferreira Gomes and Orpheu 3: The “Death of a Faun” and Literary Ekphrasis in Portugal at the beginning of the Twentieth-century	283
PROPAGANDA IN HOLLYWOOD	315
Hollywood Films and War Propaganda in the Early 1940s	317
“Architectures of Control”: Ben Wheatley’s High-Rise (2015)	325
TIME AND THE PERIPHERY	331
Why Spatial? Time and the Periphery	333
LIST OF FIGURES	353